'Big Splash' Monday At City Pool

The "big splash" is due at the Burgess Recreation Park swimming pool next Monday, Aug. 2.

It will be a memorable occasion, this opening of an unsurpassed swimming facility for both adults and children in Menlo Park's new recreation center.

Mel Kendall, city recreation director, yesterday announced completion of plans for opening of the pool, registration for swimming instruction and issuance of cards which will entitle Menlo Park people to residents' rates.

The pool will open at noon Monday for public swimming. At the same time, there will be registration for swimming classes for both children and adults. Resgistration will end on Wednesday, after which the schedule of classes will be announced.

Instruction will begin at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, Aug. 10, and will last four weeks

Kendall urged that both adults and children who don't know how to swim, sign up for the courses.

Registration will be open both to non-swimmers and those who want to improve their swimming ability. There is no minimum age for child beginners, but they must be at least four feet tall because of the water's depth.

There will be no charge for instruction save the regular admission price at the pool.

Resident rates are 14 cents for children and 35 cents for adults. Non-resident rates are 25 and 60 cents.

Residents' cards will be issued at a table to be set up outside the pool at noon Aug. 2.

More Ballots Received

Menlo Residents Evenly Divided On Choice Of Street Sign Design

Menlo Park residents continued last week to express their preferences for a uniform type of street sign to be placed throughout residential districts.

More coupons, printed in the RECORDER, were received by the chamber of commerce, with residents' preferences indicated on the coupons.

Within the last week, there has been more support for the white wooden post type of street sign, with vertical lettering. Support now is evenly divided between that kind of sign and the type which has a horizontal plate mounted atop a pole.

There yet has to be any preference indicated for street markings painted on curbstones.

The survey is being made by a chamber of commerce committee which is working with the city government on a program of street signing. The RECORDER is cooperating by printing the coupon, which appears on another page of this issue, to enable residents to indicate their preference.

The chamber committee is using the coupon as a means of getting a cross section of public opinion on the street sign program.

Immediate aim of the program is to place signs at all places where they are lacking, and then to plan replacements at other places so there will be a uniform system of street signs in residential districts.

Residents wishing to express their wishes should mark the coupon and take or mail it to the chamber of commerce office in the City Hall.

Burgess Becomes Utilities Officer

Mayor Charles P. Burgess of Menlo Park has been named a director of the San Diego Electric Railway Co. and the San Diego and Coronado Ferry Co. under a transfer of ownership to a group headed by J. L. Haugh of Oakland.

Also directors are Mayor Burgess' business partners, E L. Turkington and Leland M. Kaiser of Kaiser and Co., San Francisco, which handled the transaction and became a major stockholder in the companies. Other directors are Southern California men.

The transit properties were acquired from the J. D. and A. B. Sprekels Co., which reportedly netted $6,000,000. The Bank of America is participating through extension of credit to the new ownership.

Haugh is a nationally known transportation executive and owner of other transit properties in the west. He will be chief executive officer of the Southern California properties.

Mayor Burgess left for San Diego Tuesday afternoon in connection with the transaction.

Stanford Institute Makes Report On U. S. Peacetime Air Industry

STANFORD UNIVERSITY—A secret report by the Stanford Research Institute on the status of the U. S. peacetime aircraft industry will be delivered this week to Defense Secretary James Forrestal.

The report deals with the effect of the 70-group air force appropriation authorized by congress, and its emphasis is on the ability of the aircraft industry to expand in case of an emergency.

This was disclosed today by Weldon B. Gibson, who is directing the study at the Stanford Research Institute. During World War II, as a colonel in the army air forces, Mr. Gibson was director of material requirements for the A.A.F.

Dr. J. E. Hobson, director of the Research Institute, reported that a staff of 15, including seven professional people, were working on the aircraft studies, which also include a classified project on aircraft engines and other related matters.

Mr. Gibson has left for Washington, traveling via Wright Field at Dayton, Ohio. He will confer with air force, navy, and defense coordinating committee officials, as well as with Secretary Forrestal.

Rotary, Lions Set Benefit Ball Game

Announcement was made yesterday at weekly meeting of the Menlo Park Rotary club at Marie Antoinette's that a benefit "donkey baseball" game will be played between Rotarians and Lions club members Sunday, Aug. 22, at Nealon Memorial park on Middle avenue.

There will be advance sales of tickets at the City Hall and at recreation department headquarters at the gymnasium at Burgess Recreation Park.

Proceeds of the game will go to the city recreation department for placing more lights for night games at Nealon park, covering the present bleachers and constructing additional seating.

MENLO YOUTH ENLISTS FOR NAVY TRAINING

Bert Mehl, brother of John J. Mehl of 4104 Fair Oaks avenue, Menlo Park, enlisted in the navy at the recruiting station, Redwood City, on July 2.

Bert enlisted under the high school graduate training program, which allows a young man to choose the navy trade school he desires to attend before enlisting. He chose as the school of his choice aviation fundamentals school. Bert will first go through recruit training at the naval training center, San Diego. Upon completion of recruit training he will receive 12 days recruit leave, at completion of which he will go to aviation fundamentals school at Jacksonville, Fla.

Henry Resigns In Ravenswood; Successor Named

Paul Henry, for two years superintendent of the Ravenswood elementary school district, resigned at a meeting of the board of trustees and Stanley Schnepple, principal of Willow school, was appointed to succeed him, effective immediately.

The board accepted Mr. Henry's resignation with regret after the superintendent said he had accepted the position of superintendent of the Needles, Calif. Union school district. Mr. Henry said he regretted leaving here, but that the new position offered greater opportunity and more earnings.

The Needles district embraces a high school, three urban grade schools and several rural schools.

Mr. Schnepple came to the Ravenswood district two years ago. He served first as principal of Ravenswood school and last year as head of Willow school.

A native of Oakland, Mr. Schnepple was in recreation work there for eight years. He was graduated from Stanford University in 1941 and took graduate studies there. He came to the Ravenswood district after high school teaching, coaching and administrative work in Alameda.

His position as principal of Willow school remains to be filled.

At Monday night's meeting, the trustees awarded contract for construction of the new Belle Haven grade school to Cattich Brothers and Stevenson on a bid of $123,448. The school will be situated at Alamanor avenue and Hetch Hetchy Way.

Bids were opened last week, but awarding of a contract was delayed until state school offices approved sums in excess of state estimates of cost.

Atherton Zoning Hearings Called

The Atherton municipal planning commission today gave notice of public hearings Aug. 13 and Aug. 24 on proposed amendments to the zoning ordinance which would govern construction of public schools in Atherton.

Hearings will be held in the Atherton Town Hall at 8 p.m. on both dates.

The proposed amendments are to Sections 3 and 12 of the ordinance and would require the obtaining of use permits for the erection of public schools and regulate their construction.

NOTED CORRESPONDENT PLANS TO SETTLE HERE

Pierre Huss, noted correspondent for International News Service, hopes to settle in or near Menlo Park next year after completing a new foreign assignment.

The reporter wrote his brother, John Huss, and sister, Mrs. Noeline Jones, just before leaving for Europe last week that he plans to make his home here and hopes to arrive sometime next year.

Canine Thespian

Peke Pooch, Please!

Anyone have a Pekingese dog that can be loaned to the Menlo Players Guild for its production of "You Touched Me" at the Burgess Recreation Park theater the nights of Aug. 13, 14 and 20?

If so, the Guild would welcome such borrowing. A Pekingese is needed for a "prop" in the show. So far, none has been found.

The Guild asks that anyone having such a pet and willing to lend it to get in touch with the Guild president, Vernon Barker, DA 2-1529.

Just a plain Pekingese will do. It doesn't have to be able to talk, or even act.

There isn't much opportunity for theater immortality offered by the part, but the Peke's owners at least can always say there once was an actor in the family.

General Chairman Named For 1948 Chest Fund Drive

James L. Porter, president of the San Mateo County Community Chest, announced that William F. Leutenegger, former Millbrae mayor and prominent central county business executive, has accepted the post of general chairman for this year's county-wide Chest fund raising drive.

Leutenegger, Porter said, was selected for the general chairmanship because he has been one of the county's outstanding Community Chest workers establishing an enviable record during the past 5 years as campaign director in Millbrae. Under his leadership the Millbrae districtly consistently went "over the top" by a considerable margin.

Leitenegger on assuming his new duties, estimated that a volunteer army of 6000 solicitors will be needed to aid the county Community Chest in reaching its quota this year. He pointed out that the number of volunteers required for the present drive has increased sharply over last year due primarily to the rapid county population growth during the past 12 months.

One of Leutenegger's first acts as general chairman was to issue a plea to all civic minded citizens interested in assisting in this year's drive to contact the Chest office at 301 Lorton avenue, Burlingame. (DIamond 4-2518). There are jobs open, he said in every section of the county for volunteers who can contribute a few hours of their time to make the campaign this year an overwhelming success.

BARBECUE PLANNED

Plans for the second annual Ravenswood-Willow Booster Club barbecue were made at a meeting last night in Ravenswood school. The barbecue is scheduled for Aug. 8 at Flood Park. Reservations may be made with Frank Reece, club president, phone DA 3-6428

School Trustees Slate Budget Hearing Monday

The proposed 1948-1949 budget of the Menlo Park elementary school district will be submited to the public at an open hearing before the trustees at Central school at 7:30 p.m. next Monday, Aug. 2.

At that time, residents of the district will be given opportunity to express their views on expenditures for the approaching school year.

On the same evening, the board of trustees will consider a possible increase in the tax levy of the district to meet costs of a proposed new elementary school to serve the western area.

At a recent public session, a majority of persons attending expressed their willingness to pay a higher tax rate if necessary for the immediate construction of a new school to relieve overcrowding and avert the re-allocation of pupils in the western area from Fremont to Central school.

While not bound by the expression of residents, the board stated it would consider that opinion in any action toward building the proposed new school.

The district has a permisive maximum tax rate of $2 per $100 of assessed valuation, of which $1.10 would be for a building program. The permissive rate has not yet been used and the actual rate has been 90 cents.

(See Page 3 for the complete budget).

School officials pointed to the importance of hearing on the proposed budget and urged that residents of

WHO HIRES 'EM?

Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, that sturdy yeoman whose task it is to take regular pot shots at federal government jobholding, still is accumulating ammunition. He fired some more recently with a report on latest studies by his congressional joint committee on reduction of federal expenses.

The committee found federal employment has been rising rapidly this year, reaching a peak of 2,066000 in May, more than double the high mark in the period before the war emergency year of 1939. It also pointed out that sizable reductions in federal jobs could be made without damaging necessary operations.

Certainly there can be no argument for over-employment by government, none against economy. But just where does the responsibility rest?

Political use naturally is made of the Byrd report, coming as it did at this time. A common editorial reaction is that the administration is padding the payrolls as a vote-getting measure. The theory is that if a person is employed by the government, he and his family will vote for the administration. Some estimates are there will be four administration votes for every jobholder.

So, anti-administration forces scream, and congress says something should be done.

But, just how are federal employes hired and paid? They are appointed by administrative action under civil service regulations based on acts of congress. They are paid from funds approriated by Congress.

Congress itself holds absolute control over federal employment in the long run. It can wipe out an entire administrative agency with one legislative stroke. It holds a whip hand over monies provided for constitutional functions. It can force drastic retrenchment. It controls civil service salary schedules; witness the recent blanket increase voted by congress.

No political obligation is attached to federal employment. In fact, there's a gimmick called the Hatch act that prohibits any political activity by a government employe. Even a veiled suggestion to an underling by a superior asi to how one should vote can result in plenty of trouble.

Generally, there are five causes for dismissal from government service: Violation of the Hatch act, incompetency, insubordination, subversive activity or connection with a subversive group, and reduction in force. The latter comes under the heading of economy and can be brought about in a simple manner by congress itself under its complete control of the public pursestrings.

If jobs increase, the increased cost to the public is one permitted by congress.

If congress feels there are too many jobholders, then congress is in a position to do something about it.

As for voting, the jobholders have their choice of all parties. One of the two major parties is the administration party, the other controls the congress. The appointment of employes is the function of the administrative branch of government. The providing of funds for such employment is the function of the legislative branch.

No money, no jobs.

Looks as though the government worker and his vote could be an asset to either side.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE

Every now and then some grist from the publicity mill stands out by itself. Such as some from the current clipsheet of the National Association of Manufacturers.

One item goes like this: "For nearly two decades we've been literally starving to death the productive machine that has made this country great . . . we've forgotten that it takes money to keep existing industry at top efficiency, to build new industries, to develop new machines and processes, to make new jobs and better goods . . . we've forgotten that on the average it costs $8000 of somebody's hard-earned savings to make a single job in manufacturing . . . money like that isn't easy to get these days because the money that once was available out of higher bracket incomes for investment in new enterprises or for the expansion of business is being siphoned off by the tax collector.

"The secret of America's amazing growth in the first 60 years of our industrial revolution—from 1869 to 1929—was the fact that one-fifth of the value of our national production was plowed back every year into new industries, better machines, more efficient methods."

Alongside in an adjoining column is this item, here quoted in part:

"To develop new chemical products and processes as well as to promote fundamental research for the benefit of the American people, E. I. duPont de Nemours and Co., Inc., will begin a $30,000,000 expansion of research facilities at Wilmington, Del. The program—largest single laboratory project ever undertaken by the company—has been approved by duPont officials."

Looks like industry is still going ahead despite the change from the period previous to 1929. And, come to think of it, that was the year in which there was a bit of trouble in the country's economy.

Police Chief George Potter still is on the job in Menlo Park. Several of his friends have called Potter to inquire in a joshing manner whether he had been replaced. Reason: A daily newspaper, in reporting the arrest of a persistent drunk, said the miscreant was nabbed by "Chief Jack Yount."

Your City's Business

By MAYOR CHAS. P. BURGESS

Perhaps the review of the accomplishments under our 14-point program had better be interrupted to review the budget for the current year while it is still news. The tax rate this year is set at $1.25, compared with $1.00 last year. The $1.25 rate is made up of $1.00 for the general fund, 15 cents for the recreation and civic center bonds, and 10 cents for the retirement system for city employees that the council determined to install this year. In point of fact, however, the $1.25 rate does not represent an increase over what our taxpayers have been paying, for the cost of the street lights, heretofore a separate item on the tax bill but now included in the city budget, normally runs in excess of 25 cents. It is true that the amount was only 20 cents last year because of a non-recurring carryover, but it was in excess of 26 cents the previous year, and has averaged better than 25 cents over the last 10 years. The city lighting budget this year is $10,000, equivalent to 23½ cents on the tax rate, which is substantially equal to the combined bond tax and retirement system tax.

The overall budget this year is $134,609. The total is not exactly comparable with last year's budget of $86,750 as the total was made up somewhat differently. Adjusted to the same accounting basis as last year's figures, the budget this year would be $126,609, still an increase of 46 per cent. Included in the increase, are the $10,000 cost of street lighting, which was a separate tax item last year, and an $8254 recreation budget in connection with our Dibble acquisition One-tenth of the increase was accounted for by adoption of the retirement system. Increases in population made it necessary to add one man each to the police department, street department and park department. Conditions rquired a general salary increase for city employees. General government expense also was greater this lyear as compared with last, as a city manager's salary was not contemplated at the time the last budget was made up.

As a very rough generalization, the 46 per cent increase in the city's budget may be divided one-half for new services (street lighting, recreation program, etc), one-quarter for new personnel due to growth (additional police, street and park men and city manager), and one-quarter to meet higher material prices and wage and salary levels, including retirement.

Trailers and houseboats do not qualify as homes under the loan guaranty provisions of the G-I Bill, Veterans Administration reports.

Although frequently used as dwellings, trailers and houseboats are not "homes" within the meaning of the G-I Bill and are ineligible for loan guaranty.

However, G-I loans may be negotiated for trailers and houseboats if used for legitimate business purposes.

APPLICATIONS FOR PINS AVAILABLE

Floyd D. Granger, Veterans Service Officer of San Mateo County, announced today that applications are available at his office in the Courthouse, Redwood City, for gold star lapel pins recently authorized by congress as a suitable means of identification for widows and parents of members of the armed forces of the United States who lost their lives in the armed services of the United States in World War II.

Public Law 306, 80th Congress, provides that one gold star lapel button will be furnished to the widow and to each of the parents. The term "widow" includes widower; the term "parents" includes mother, father, stepmother, stepfather, mother through adoption, and father through adoption.

The law further provides, Granger stated, that gold star lapel buttons will be furnished upon the payment of an amount sufficient to cover the cost of manufacture and distribution, to the next of kin of any such deceased person, not designated above. The term "next of kin" includes only children, brothers, sisters, half brothers, and half sisters; and the term "children" includes stepchildren and children through adoption.

This insignia comes in two types, one with a pin attachment and the other the clutch type.

Assistance in compiling the necessary application forms will be given persons in the above categories eligible to receive a gold star lapel button, at the Veterans Service Office in the Courthous, Redwood City.

The state department of the American Legion also announced that applications are available at its headquarters in the Veterans Building, San Francisco.

YOUR TOWN ATHERTON

By Mayor James B. Howell

The El Camino Real in San Mateo County had been improved as far south as Redwood City by the end of 1940. The plans for the work to be done in the section passing through the Town of Atherton were discussed with the State Department of Highways. Storm drainage had become a problem of major importance as the property between the highway and the hills was gradually being converted from agricultural to residential and the drainage area was decreasing.

During the period 1939-41 our lend lease and other war activities created the feeling that we would soon be in actual conflict with Germany and Japan. Consequently the council took great pleasure in complying with a request from Washington to issue an appeal for recruits for the U. S. Navy.

When Pearl Harbor was attacked a defense council was established and Atherton was organized in accordance with instructions from the National Defense Council. When tire rationing became effective Atherton succeeded in having its own rationing board.

Due to the ever increasing complaints from the county sanitary board as to the unsatisfactory conditions of cesspools and septic tanks in the North Fair Oaks district, the construction of sewer laterals was awarded in 1945.

The end of the war was now in sight and as the assessed value of the property in our town had increased to $5,718,650 and there was every indication that the rapid growth would continue, the present zoning ordinance was prepared. After many public hearings, it was adopted the latter part of 1946.

LOUIS J. STELLMAN

No more difficult and plaguing riddle of diplomacy, perhaps, has confronted this nation than the one which now stems from Berlin. The advantage is dintinctly Russia's on a number of counts, the most important of which is that it lies close to her borders and thousands of miles from ours. In case of war, Russian troops could overrun the territory in dispute long before we could reinforce our small occupation army; even before our air-might or even our atom-bombs could be brought into play; and, while there is no doubt about the final victory and the destruction of Russia's current plutocracy, the cost—even to the Russian people, who would gain their freedom thereby—would be too terrible for contemplation.

Whether we can continue to serve as the moral, political and economic guardians of Europe's freedom-seeking nations for an indefinite period without ruining our own economy in the process is another vexed question. As a result of two world wars for the restoration of something like Democracy in a trans-Atlantic continent and our impoverishing efforts to adjust their disastrous aftermaths, we ourselves in the position of holding a bear by the tail. What the moral is, I do not know. Isolationists will say, "Mind your own business", adding, under their breath, "and let the rest of the world go hang."

Unfortunately, it is not so simle as that.

What makes it still more irritating is the double talk to which Russian officials in general and Marshal Sokolovsky in particular has treated us. First, the Marshal said, the railroad was out of order and needed repairs; next he didn't want good redeemable money to compete with his rapidly depreciating currency; later it was something about our failure to renegotiate controversies already settled and still later, he declared, we wouldn't give his people free access to the American zone of Berlin. Because of this discourtesy, Sokolovsky told an American correspondent, he had to close the corridor in retaliation, seeking thus to by-pass the fact that it was an established international right of way.

These is no direct or honest way to deal with such nonsense, which would be amusing except for the unbearable nuisance value behind it. Whether continued playing patty-cake with the Politbureau and its Sokolovskys will profit us anything in the end is doubtful. Many of us believe, if we had a leader with the forthrightness and vision of Roosevelt, the Berlin impasse would long ago have been broken; but, as we have not, such speculation is, at best, academic. According to Drew Pearson, General MacArthur has a more effective way of dealing with such situations. When a Russian high officer was arrested near Tokio for speeding and having no pass, he boiled over and demanded an apology. MacArthur sent word to this irate character that he was getting the same treatment an American would for violating the law of a Russian zone. "No apology", he said. The Russian was impressed. "What a man!" he exclaimed, completely pacified.

Under identical circumstances. General Sokolovsky had his pardon begged abjectly by American officials in Berlin. Is it any wonder, then, that he lays down the law to them according to his fancy?

For the Berlin corridor debacle, we must blame our own stupidity. Even with a signed agreement we should, probably, have paid the price for trusting men whose type has long considered covenants mere "scraps of paper." With a verbal understanding only it were childish to bring up a point of honor. We must, no matter how regretfully, disclose our teeth. If English is not understood in Moscow, we shall have to talk Russian to Russia.

HOW TO SET UP HOUSEKEEPING ..telephone style

1. Building a home for telephone equipment is a big and complex job. The framework must be extra massive to carry heavy loads and resist shock. To make room for equipment, the stories are taller, too. This new building, larger than most but of typical construction, has fifteen floors...yet it's as high as a twenty-story building.

2. The "furniture" for our telephone home is the equipment needed to handle your calls. Manufacturing and installing it takes time...and lots of money. Your new telephones can't get to work without it, so we're putting in equipment, constructing buildings, and providing other facilities to the tune of over half a million dollars a day.

3. A lot of close, exacting work is still ahead. Thousands of tiny connections must feel the heat of a soldering iron before new equipment can handle your calls. Scenes like this are common in telephone offices all over the Coast today as we build and expand—in the face of high costs—to meet the West's growing needs.

4. Where does the money come from? Millions of new working dollars...needed to extend and improve service...must come, not from telephone bills, but from thousands of people who put their savings to work in the telephone business. To attract these working dollars, we must pay a reasonable amount for their use. This depends on the sale of our services at fair and adequate prices.

The big struggle of the season goes on the boards this Thursday when Serv-Well and J and A play the crucial contest of the second half. Serv-Well is currently leading the second half of the league with no losses and J and A defeated them 3 to 1 in a swell game in the first half. Here's a good one to see folks, so come out Thursday for what looke to be a major event and the second half pennant is at stake.

Playoffs start on Monday, Aug. 9, with the first place playing second place and Tuesday the 10th the third and fourth place clubs meet, and then Thursday, the 12th, will see the winner take all game.

If J and A defeats the Serv-Well a playoff for the second half will have to be arranged by Mel Kendall before Monday.

The J and A team, hard put to fill the pitching chore, pulled "old Pard Balleau" Sullivan out of the moth balls to hurl against the Menlo Motors and when the dust settled the Motors had whizzed around the track for 13 runs to the J and A 7 and the biggest upset of the season had gone into the records.

Manager Rodriques and his three assistants Mel Shields, Emile Campagne and "Frenchy" Pommes tried every possible shuffle but the Motors behind Mel Kendalls "blooper" ball had more knocks than a "mad man Muntz" special and they earned the win playing like champions.

Phil Tousey for the second season in a row has been selected to play on the Examiner all-star team to play next Sunday at Seals stadium.

Phil rapped out a 350 foot homer to win the bid.

Ellis Simpson, the most loyal Seal, has gradually come back to his old self. They had Ellis beat to a frazzle while the Seals were slumping. One good feature, Ellis says, was that some of his most ardent critics had two haircuts in one week just to work him over so what's good for the pocket isn't always good for the heart.

the district attend Monday night's session.

The proposed budget for 1948-49 lists total expenditures, transfers and ending balance of $172,948. This includes proposed expenditures and transfers of $167,948, plus a reserve of $5000.

Proposed expenditures include $6675 for administration, $87,080 for teachers' salaries, $12,000 for other expenses of instruction, $17,260 for operation of school plants and $7000 for maintenance. Other costs also are listed.

The proposed budget lists $80,150 required in district taxes for the general fund. Other income includes $66,421 in state school fund apportionments, $214 in school apportionment for transportation and $1495 in state school apportionment for excess costs. A sum of $4532 is listed as district taxes on unsecured property.

The net beginning balance is listed at $20,136 after deducting current liabilities from current assets.

The budget and tax rate are to be adopted by the school board in time for submission to the San Mateo county board of supervisors in September.

Proposals are under consideration for a new grade school to serve the western part of the district. No site has yet been obtained, but condemnation proceedings have been ordered against a tract owned by the Sharon estate on Elder between Santa Cruz and Valparaiso.

By reason of the enactment of Federal legislation reducing the cost to said City of said municipal improvement, the City Council of said City has, by resolution, determined and declared that the proceeds of the remaining $51,000 principal amount of said bonds, authorized at said election, will not be required and that said $51,000 principal amount of said bonds will never be issued.

The lowest net interest cost shall be computed between the dates aforesaid according to standard bond interest tables. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the City.

RIGHT OF REJECTION

The City of Menlo Park reserves the right, in its discretion, to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

BID CHECK:

With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $5,000, drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the City Treasurer of the City of Menlo Park to secure the City from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the City on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the City. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the City by mail upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon the deposit made by the successful bidder.

The City of Menlo Park has prepared an official statement relative to its financial condition, copies of which will be furnished to any interested bidder upon request.

There is no controversy or litigation pending or threatened concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of the City, or the title of the officers to their respective offices.

TROOP 107

Six Scouts from 107 returned last Saturday from a week's stay at Camp Pomponio. While at Camp the boys took several hikes to Memorial Park and one 35 mile hike to the Girl Scout camp at Woodhaven. The Scouts; Clayton Graham, Bob Gilbert, Bob Lawson, Redmond Kernan, Gavin Carr and Eric Noller, also spent a lot of time rowing and swimming. All of the cooking was done by the Scouts themselves over an outside fire.

Billy Mills, Dave Sundquist, Bobby Rake, Padric Nelson, Ed Graham, Jerry Glunz and Bob Graham spent the weekend at camp. Their time was spent also in swimming, hiking and rowing. Troop 122 of Redwood City also spent four days at the camp.

Robert Rake has passed his tenderfoot requirements during the week and is now eligible to become a registered Scout. Bob also spent several years in the Cub Scouts in Menlo Park.

San Mateo County Recorder T. C. Rice announced that his office collected $12,665 in fees in June, compared with $9148 in the same month last year.

Taxpayer Group Raps Bill For U. S. School Aid

"Threat to local control of the public schools of San Mateo county is inherent in the provisions of the federal aid to education bill, S. 472, which is one of the issues which may come before the special session of congress," A. C. Hardison, of Santa Paula, president of California Taxpayers' association, said.

Pointing to the generous support of public schools in the county, which included $4,157,967 in property taxes and $3,124,804 in direct state apportionments for the year which ended on June 30, 1948, and to the equally generous suport of public schools throughout California, which included $202,603, 395 in local property taxes and $172,640,165 in state support, Hardison said:

"The bill proposing federal aid for education is 'doubly unfortunate' because the individual states have not asked for help in running their own schools. On the contrary, each year the states are providing increasing amounts for the support of the schools within their borders.

"Last year, the states paid 40 per cent of the cost of public education in the primary and secondary schools. This is a third more than the 30 per cent they contributed in 1939-40.

"Last year, teacher salaries throughout the United States averaged $2550. In 1936-40 they averaged only $1441. In California, last year, the median or midpoint teacher salary was $3381.

Francia Shops at Kay's

We seem never to have the correct glass for certain beverages. So I shopped at KAY'S GIFTS AND HOMEWARE and found a delightful pattern called "MINT", just a plain tumbler with frosted mint leaves for decor. I purchased tall iced tea or highball tumblers; smaller ones for water; cute little 5 oz. glasses for cocktails or fruits juice, and last the 2 oz. whiskey. And all were priced at only 25 cents per glass. AT KAY'S. 1019 El Camino Real, Menlo Park. Oh yes, there is a big matching pitcher also.

COOPERATION is certainly a big selling-point in my estimation!

An EXPERIENCED DECORATOR can eliminate or add just a few little ideas in your home to give it that "new look". And it's the way it's done that counts.

YOUR ideas are discussed and compared with professional tastes and practicability. It's the "two heads are beter than one" idea that produces a satisfied customer, believe me!

Why not call on a decorator from the HOUSE OF INTERIOR to help you with your ideas? They're as close to you as your telephone; just call

Stanford Village Notes

Correspondent:
Virginia Hearn
Phone DAvenport 3-6315

To acquaint foreign students with American life, the Family Council last week approved plans for each Village family to invite one foreign student to dinner next quarter.

Jose de Larios, who heads the ASSU committee bringing Europeans to Stanford on scholarships, and Bill Wake are in charge of the program. Eight students will arrive at the end of September—a Russian displaced person, a Bulgarian woman from France, a German woman, a Frenchman, 2 Finns, a Netherlander, and an Austrian. Villagers may invite any or all of these. Arrangements may be made through de Larios, 307-2, or Wake, 307-11.

With the Saturday children's movies a great success, the Council committee headed by Win Jones hopes to inaugurate a series for adults.

Villagers are asked to see Mrs. Jones at 211-7 to tell her their preferences in children's films and also their interest in the proposed adult program. At present the committee is showing nature films donated by the Humane Society of Palo Alto, colored Mother Goose, and old comedies by Abbott and Costello, Mickey Rooney and Shirley Temple. One person from each area will assist each Saturday with the program, and those attending are asked to help put away chairs.

A branch of the San Mateo county library will be opened here within a month, either in one of the Village buildings or as a mobile unit.

Lu Wake, chairman of this committee, asks wives interested in working in the library to confer with Dwight Adams in the administration building.

After buying a home in Costa Mesa, Dudley and Mary Boyce and young Tommy will move there Aug. 15, and Mr. Boyce will teach business courses at the new Orange Coast Junior College.

Mr. Boyce, a graduate of the Harvard School of Business, will receive his master's degree in education at Stanford this quarter.

Also leaving the Village are Bob and D. May Fox, who will return to their home in San Diego on Aug. 17. Mr. Fox, who is completing doctoral examinations this quarter, is county coordinator for curriculum there.

This week they are entertaining friends from Kansas, Capt. and Mrs. Robert Hume, who are en route to an army air corps base in Alaska.

A change in schedule for the Children's Story House brings two programs for three to five year olds, Tueesday and Friday, and a trial program for two year olds Monday from 3:30 to 4:15 in the Village clubrooms.

Louise Jones, committee chairman, wishes volunteers to see her at 211-3. At present Sue Diehl and Beverly Hine are assisting with the older children, and Dorothy Bernd manages the program for small children.

Older children are active in their recreation program at the Park. Swings have been ordered, and two wading pools are set up when there is supervised play. Adults may use the barbecue pit without signing up. The Village clubrooms are also available and may be reserved at the resident counselor's office.

As a farewell to four families leaving their court, unit 213-215, Middlefield, will hold a barbecue at the Park Sunday.

Barbara and Lawrence Werboff are having a reunion with several friends this week. Miriam Evans from New York is spending two weeks with them, and Tuesday M. L. Lorentz and Larry Larar also arrived from New York . . . Adeline and Bill Iverson are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. W. Keith Carstons and their children, Norman and Elaine, from Grosse Point, Michigan. Mr. Iverson participated in the third Stanford Summer Education Conference, attended by teachers from all over Central California

Several families are vacationing. Combining work with play, Jo and Bob Waters, Bobby 18 months, and Susan, 3 are at the San Jose YMCA camp in the Santa Cruz mountains, where Mr. Waters is a counselor . . . Mary and Larry Weiler and 2-year-old Jeff have returned from a trip to the Russian River, Sacramento, and Stockton . . . Nan Booth and Jeff, 18 months, are back from Salt Lake City . . Dud Copping went last week to Chicago, while Dave Copping is teaching history at the Montana State summer session . . . Dorothy and Jim Burns are leaving this week for a two weeks stay at Yosemite.

Fred and Bonnie Cranston now have a young son Frederick Lester, born Sunday, July 25, and weighing eight pounds three ounces. He and his mother will return from the Palo Alto Hospital tomorrow.

Mrs. Cranston's mother, Mrs. Leota Debe of Denver, is visiting the family and taking care of fifteen-month-old Carol Lou.

New Electra Pow now pouring pow P. G. and E. I

Latest in the parade of new P. G. and E. power producers is the Electra plant on the Mokelumne River eight miles from Jackson. New Electra is one of four powerhouses, completed or underway, spaced along the river...powerhouses to take the muscle from the Mokelumne and put it to work for Northern and Central California homes, farms and factories. One Electra unit began pouring power on the line this week and, when at full capacity, Electra will produce 133,000 horsepower. The four Mokelumne plants will turn out a total of 250,000 horsepower.

A pipeful of power . . . the penstock shown here feeds Mokelumne water from the reservoir to the powerhouse under high pressure. There it's jetted from giant nozzles at terrific speed against the water wheels that whirl power-making turbines.

Power enough to serve the cities of Berkeley, Richmond and Emeryville will pour out of New Electra. The entire Mokelumne project will produce nearly twice that much. And this is just part of our program of more power . . . to serve you better.

for the record

New Electra stands near the site of the first plant to serve San Francisco with hydro-power.

P. G. and E. is investing in California at the rate of more than $10,000,000 a month.

The first half-million new horsepower is being added in the next seven months.

orizontal Type treet Signs Favored In Poll

By a clear majority of votes in an unofficial poll of sentiment, Menlo Park residents have gone on record in favor of the horizontal sign mounted atop a pole as a standard type of street markers for residential districts.

Results of the poll, conducted by means of coupons printed in the RECORDER in cooperation with the chamber of commerce street signing committee, were:

Horizontal sign mounted on pole—61.2 per cent.

Vertical lettering on wooden post—32.4 per cent.

Curbstone painting—6.4 per cent.

The poll has been conducted by the committee and the RECORDER the last three weeks. The committee, comprising Will L. Merryman and Earl Gibson, was named to work with the city government in working out a street signing program. Immediate aim is to place signs where they now are lacking, and then to embark on a long-range replacement program for uniform signing.

During most of the polling, the preference was for the horizontal-lettered sign atop a pole, although at one point, preference was evenly divided between that type of sign and that which has vertical lettering on a white wooden post.

Merryman and Gibson said that the next step will be to work out the program with City Manager Cecil Longson and determine how many signs will be needed and what the cost will be.

Employed Women's Club Is Proposed

Quota Club of Palo Alto is sponsoring an employed women's recreation club for all women working in Palo Alto. The first project to raise money for its maintenance will be a silver tea and bazaar, on Sunday, Aug. 1, from 1 to 5, at 640 Waverley street. The motif will be Chinese. The club will serve Chinese tea and coffee, and sell Chinese foods, candy, nuts, ginger, tea, etc., as well as small articles.

Following Quota's creed "We Share", half of the proceeds will go to Ming Hsien College of Chengtu, China, a college which was instituted to commemorate the missionary martyrs of the Boxer Rebellion, in 1906. Professor Que Sun Tong, Dean of Faculty will lecture on "Education in China during and after the War Years".

Quota Club hopes to follow this tea with other events, all of which will follow an International theme, and half of the proceeds of which will go to a relief organization in the country used. The recreation club would be open to Menlo Park women employed in Palo Alto.
